SUBJECT: Selection process for new INWG Commander

1. On 4 January 2007, Major Warren M. Reeves, CAP, was appointed interim wing commander for Indiana Wing.

2. Officers who meet the following minimum qualifications are invited to apply for the wing commander position:

- a. Hold at least the CAP grade of major;
- b. Completed Level IV of the Senior Member Training Program;
- c. Three years command and staff experience at any level within a wing;
- d. Budget and asset acquisition knowledge gained within or outside CAP;
- e. Five years supervisory experience gained within or outside CAP;
- f. Five years total CAP membership with no less than three continuous years of service prior to appointment;
- g. Prior to appointment as wing commander, individual must complete a successful fingerprint re-screening.

2. The application process is as follows: submit a letter of interest, including a statement of qualifications and resume to my attention. The resume should include CAP experience as well as work history and other volunteer activities. Applicants have the option of including with their application documents answers, in narrative form, to the questions set forth in CAPR 35-9 § B. Attachment 1. Your application documents should be sent by facsimile to 815.366.8249. A Selection Advisory Board is not being appointed at this time nor is a deadline to submit applications being set; these details will be announced in the future.

3. Fulfilling the duties of a CAP wing commander are very rewarding and I encourage all qualified personnel to give serious consideration to applying.

WILLIAM W. WEBB, Colonel, CAP
Commander
